

Ministry of Defence

The Ministry of Defence asked Gamma Media to produce a collection of video clips that could be broken down into an interactive e-learning module for their staff. Gamma Media provided a full production service including the sourcing of the actors, location, filming, photography, editing and encoding.

We also contributed to the direction of the production working with the client and lead designer to make sure we were producing a suitable video for the module. 